

ARE YOU WORKING? LET AN IL ABLE ACCOUNT WORK FOR YOU!

If you are an employed or self-employed IL ABLE Account Owner, you may qualify to contribute more to the Account—above the contribution limit.

WHAT DOES THAT MEAN?

- Increased savings for your quality of life
- Greater protection against federal benefits asset tests
- Added flexibility to build financial wellness

HOW TO CALCULATE THE WORKING ACCOUNT OWNER'S ADDITIONAL ANNUAL CONTRIBUTION

- 1 First, determine the Account Owner's annual compensation for the calendar year.
- 2 Next, refer to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Poverty Guidelines to find the federal poverty level dollar amount for a one-person household in the working Account Owner's state of residence for the previous calendar year.
- 3 Your additional contribution is either #1 or #2—whichever number is less.

ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible to make additional contributions, Account Owners must be working full-time or part-time and must not have any contributions made in the current calendar year to:

- a defined contribution plan that meets the requirements of IRC sections 401(a) or 403(b),
- a 403(b) annuity contract, or
- a 457(b) eligible deferred compensation plan.

Additional contributions must come from either the Account Owner or the Account Owner's employer. Please see the Plan Disclosure Booklet for details.

If the working IL ABLE Account Owner's annual compensation totals more than the applicable federal poverty level dollar amount, the Account Owner can contribute an additional amount up to, and not beyond, the federal poverty guideline to the Account.

Example: Angel is an employed Account Owner living in Illinois. He has not had any contributions made to an employer-sponsored retirement plan in the current calendar year. He will earn $20,000 in 2025. In Illinois, the 2024 Federal Poverty Level amount for a one-person household was $15,060. Since $15,060 is less than $20,000, Angel may contribute up to an additional $15,060 above the contribution limit in 2025.

If the working IL ABLE Account Owner's annual compensation is less than the federal poverty level dollar amount, the Account Owner can contribute an additional amount to the Account up to, and not beyond, their total annual compensation

Example: Jenni is a self-employed Account Owner in Illinois and has not had any contributions made to an employer-sponsored retirement plan in the current calendar year. She will earn $5,000 in 2025. In Illinois, the 2024 Federal Poverty Level for a one-person household was $15,060. Since $5,000 is less than $15,060, Jenni may contribute up to an additional $5,000 above the contribution limit in 2025.
